Game changing ideas

- personalize your favorite games to add your family or friends
- find or upload pictures of your family and/or friends (make one set of names - to use to pick your starting person)
- depending on your design, you can print, cut out, and tape new pictures on to the board, OR
- Don't have the game - no problem, print two pages and cover up with small objects when guessing or leave on your personal devices

Game changing ideas

- personalize your favorite games to add sight words, spelling words, OR math facts
- make new rules, and say, write, or make up sentences using the words.

Use peel and stick dots, labels or tape, add spelling words, sound blends, numbers and practice math facts

Puzzles

Take an old puzzle, put it together, flip it over and create a NEW picture/design.

Examples with letters or math facts

Other puzzle or game ideas

Don't have an old puzzle - no problem, turn a cereal box or your own personal design on a cardboard box into a puzzle to

Take your favorite game outside and make it life size, see the driveway chutes & ladders

Challenge

-If you are up for the challenge - create your own game with materials you have at home

Possible materials - paper, dice, markers, cards, glue, dominos, cups, scissors, popsicle sticks, pompoms, small rocks, post-it notes, beans, tape, blocks, pipe cleaners, beads, the list goes on and on.
